ANGELS DEFEAT OAKLAND TEAM

Break Winning Streak of Christian's Men by 7 to 4 Victory.

San Francisco, May 19.—Los Angeles broke the winning streak of Oakland today when it took Tyler Christian's men down the line at Recreation park by 7 to 4 in a game that was brimful of good pitching and some fielding that hardly came up to standard. Homers, as a matter of fact, had much to do with their victory. Bill Lindsay broke the ice for the first tally of the day, when he hoisted the ball over the right field fence.

Louis Metzger did better than that a few moments later, for he registered his fence ball when there were two ahead of him on the cushions. Errors helped the Angels to a still further lead along in the fifth, and when Bromley filled in for Prough, after the latter had been ousted for a pinch hitter, the visitors had little trouble in making it seven all told.

Prough fanned nine and gave but five hits in the eight innings he was in the harness, but when he was touched the hinges were bunched and, what is more important, they were made to count.

At the outset it looked that Hughes, the veteran, was in for a lacing. He was scored against, not only in the first, but in the second as well, when a double for Ness came just before a long single for Elliott.

Thereafter he settled to his task and it was not until the ninth came to a close that Oakland showed any signs of life. Then an incipient rally resulted in one run.

Los Angeles:

Runs ..... 003 020 002-7
Base hits ..... 002 030 001-6
Oakland:

Runs ..... 110 000 001-3
Base hits ..... 121 100 002-7

HAPPY HOGAN LAID TO REST

Thousand Pay Final Tribute to Sportsman and Friend—Church a Mass of Blooms.

Los Angeles, May 19.—Happy Hogan is at rest. Gathered in Christ's Episcopal church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, thousands paid honor to the man who by his most excellent qualities as a sportsman and friend had endeared himself to baseball fans on the Pacific coast.

The church was a mass of blooms. A great harp nine feet high, with broken strings, gave evidence of some of the loss felt by Hogan's fellow teammates. Another beautiful piece came from the Indianapolis club of the American association and a third from the Kansas City team in the same league.

The services opened with a solo by Earl Houck, blind singer of the Elks. Dr. Baker P. Lea, rector of Christ's church then read the Elks' burial service, assisted by prominent members in the order, and after the prayer and a hymn the casket was opened and for nearly an hour a great throng in double column filed silently past to take a last look at the face from which even death could not eradicate the smile.

The body was borne to the crematory and after cremation the urn containing all that remained of Wallace L. Bray was sent to his old home, Santa Clara, for final interment. The pallbearers were six members of the Venice team.

In memory of Happy Hogan the game here yesterday was stopped for five minutes. At the close of the fourth inning Umpire Held made the announcement. The players and officials stood in position and with the fans "uncovered" in respect to the most picturesque figure the diamonds of the Pacific coast have ever seen.

Hogan was seen in but four games here, but he won a warm place for himself in the hearts of the Salt Lake baseball lovers and there were many expressions of sincere regret here over the death of this unique figure.

FOR WOMEN—CANES! IT'S THOUGHT TO BE CLEVER NOW; PARASOLS FOR MEN?

Newer than anything else among fashion's foibles for frails is the carrying of canes. The canes are very much like any he-cane, being perched a little higher and more dainty. Their function—whatever it is—remains the same, however, and the idea promises to be a pretty popular one.

DEFEATED BY NEVER RIPS.

The Mail Clerks team of the City league, working with several new men, was defeated yesterday evening at the Glenwood diamond, by the Never Rips team. The contest was for five innings and ended with the score 5 to 1. Brose Hill, one of the Never Rips' crack pitchers, proved to be the star of the game, striking out seven men and allowing only one hit. He also started the batting rally in the third inning which proved the undoing of Brickley and won the contest. The latter had held the Rips to two ciphers in the first two innings, when Hill found him for a fast single. Four more successive hits followed and before the smoke died away, four Never Rips had counted. Brickley allowed only one hit in the other three innings, but this, with a couple of errors behind him, gave his opponents another run. In all the Mail Clerks registered three errors, against two for the Never Rips.

Pottor, Captain Brickley's new find, drove in the only run secured by the Clerks and also smothered a high one in left field in expert fashion. Two double plays were staged during the contest, the first by Stanger, G. Stone and Sprague and the second by Herrick and Wright. The lineup follows:

Mail Clerks. Never Rips.
Herrick ..... C. H. Stone
Brickley ..... P. Hill
Wright ..... 1b. Sprague

In the seventh, the Lewis players drove Thomas out of the box and scored the winning run on a double steal.

The lineup was as follows:

SALT LAKE WINS OPENING GAME

Seals Defeated in Eleven-inning Ball Tossing Argument by Score 2 to 1.

The score: Salt Lake 2, San Francisco 1. (Eleven innings).

The batteries: Salt Lake—C. Williams and Hannah. San Francisco—Fanning and Schmidt.

Following out their custom of taking the first game of the series, Cliff Blankenship and his ball tossers won yesterday afternoon from Harry Wollerton and the Seals in an eleven-inning flinging argument by a 2 to 1 count.

With the field an ocean of mud, the sky overcast and dark and the thermometer none too high, the teams had all the license in the world to stage a hippodrome, but they put up one of the prettiest battles of the season. Fast fielding was out of the question and many of the nineteen hits recorded would have been handled ordinarily.

"Sneak" Fanning and "Lefty" Williams went to the hill and had a little duel, pitching some good ball in the first part of the game when the hits were coming fast and then settling down and flinging absolutely airtight ball for inning after inning. Williams pitched himself out of many tight holes, and it was not Fanning's fault that Salt Lake scored in the eleventh. A wild throw saved Salt Lake the trouble of getting a safe hit, something that only one man had done in seven innings.
